

I'm not robot!

When your third grader just isn't up to par with reading comprehension (you know that he or she is struggling because of a lack of interest in books, poor test scores, and teacher input) what are you supposed to do about it? How can you help him or her become a successful reader? The good news is that you're on the right track! The following reading comprehension books for third graders can help you help your child with the skills and strategies necessary for comprehending what they've read. Sylvan Author: Sylvan Learning, Inc. Publisher: Random House, Inc. Summary: This full color, one-page-a-day workbook combines spelling, vocabulary and reading comprehension strategies for kids who need a full Language Arts boost. Buy the complete package for a Language Arts work-out for students really struggling. Reading Skills Practice: Making predictions, understanding vocabulary in context using context clues, finding the main idea, sequencing, identifying problems. It also includes spelling skills like verb tense and compound words along with vocabulary building skills with suffixes, root words and homophones. Price: At press time, the workbook ranged from $10.59 - $15.74 on Amazon. Why Buy? If your child needs Language Arts remediation and gets bored easily with black and white print-outs, this workbook is just the ticket. Not only will the full color pages will help keep kids engaged, the skills included should help kids secure those basics they may be missing. Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Author: Steck-Vaughn Publisher: Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Summary: This book includes info pages at the beginning of each unit and each lesson provide explicit instructions for teaching the skills. The reading passages are followed by comprehension questions in multiple-choice and short answer format, so kids can feel prepared for standardized tests. The book also includes graphic organizers and correlation charts. Reading Skills Practice: Finding the main idea, using context clues, sequencing, determining cause and effect, making inferences, finding details, and understanding the difference between fact and opinion. Price: At press time, the workbook ranged from $9.97 - $15.74 on Amazon. Why Buy? Kids are often inundated with fiction, but nonfiction is just as important to read and comprehend, too. I'd wager that most of an adult's day is spent reading nonfiction! This workbook helps kids grasp nonfiction with high-interest topics. Evan-Moor Author: Camille Liscinsky Publisher: Evan-Moore Summary: There are over 150 reproducible reading passages and tons of skill-building follow-up questions. It's perfect for test prep and daily review as it uses both fiction and nonfiction reading passages with follow-up questions that target key comprehension skills. Reading Skills Practice: Finding the main idea, drawing conclusions, sequencing, identifying cause and effect, developing vocabulary, analyzing characters, comparing and contrasting, making inferences, following directions, making predictions, sorting and classifying, and reading for details, making connections and organizing. Price: At press time, the workbook ranged from $17.27 - $19.71 on Amazon. Why Buy? The pages are ready to go for class or home use. You literally just have to open the book and begin. Plus, the lessons are easy to follow and thorough enough that you won't need anything else. Kumon Author: Kumon Staff Publisher: Kumon Publishing North America, Incorporated Summary: This is another workbook that teachers pre-3rd grade skills. It's an ideal summer solution for struggling readers who are transitioning from second grade to third grade. Reading Skills Practice: Vocabulary Building, Prefixes & Suffixes, Compare & Contrast, Defining Words by Context, Who/When/Where/What/Why/How, Chart the Passage, Sequencing, and Making & Revising Predictions Price: At press time, the workbook ranged from $3.95 - $7.95 on Amazon. Why Buy? If cash is an issue for you, then this resource is right on the money. You won't find another workbook with such a low price for such a high quality of content. Showing 1-6 Start your review of Reading Comprehension, Grade 5: Daily Reading Workbook for Classroom and Home, Reading Comprehension and Phonics Practice, School Level Activities (Skill Builders) Carol marked it as to-read Aug 01, 2022 Each week there will be a new reading comprehension packet. There are 5 pages (one for each day of the week). They may be completed all in one day, one each day or any way that works with your schedule. Answers for all 5 days must be turned in each Friday. After reading a passage and the corresponding questions on your computer screens, students will print a bubble answer sheet and record their answers on that sheet. Answer sheet should be turned in on Friday in the homework sorter. Print the Bubble Answer Sheet below to submit your answers. Be sure to fill in your student code and the bubbles under each number. Write the answer to day 5 on the back (in cursive.) Write in your name, date, and class (5H) in the appropriate boxes. In the quiz box, write "week number #". Fill in your student ID code. Everyone's ID code starts with the numbers 515 and adds your class student number--51501 is the student ID code for student #1 in our class. 5 is for grade 5, 15 is for our room number). Fill in the bubbles under each of the numbers in your ID code. Answers should be filled in corresponding to the number of each item. For example, record the answer for Day 1, Question 1 on #11 on the answer sheet, Day 1, Question 2 on #12 etc. The answer for Day 2, Question 1 should be filled in on #21 etc. Follow the same pattern for each day. NO ANSWERS SHOULD BE FILLED IN on the answer sheet FOR NUMBERS 1-10, 16-20, 26-30, 36-40, and 49-50. Please don't cross out those numbers, just leave these bubbles blank. Day 5 should be written on the back of your bubble answer sheet. Make sure to fully answer the question (at least 5 sentences), write in CURSIVE, put the question in the answer, check for spelling or grammar errors and include a conclusion sentence. Day 5 is worth 5 points (one for each of the above items).
